

The Ballad of Kirstie and Tommy

Ballad ♩ = 80

Words and music by Gordon Lawrie

(Capo at 3rd fret = G)

How in the world did it come to this? It was - n't meant to be

In - stead of a wed ding sealed with a kiss there's on - ly you and me

The party's can - celled the band's left town The guests have all stayed at home,

We're left to par - ty with no one a - round, so we'll cel - e - brate on our own

It might be June but it's pour - ing with rain These emp - ty glass - es should be filled with wine

We're stand - ing on the plat form hav - ing missed the train, Don't wor ry, it - ll work out fine

Verse 2

Standing outside of our house by the sea,
Wondering what we did wrong
But look at the stars, what will be will be
It'll be all right before long
And there's always tomorrow, as you've always said
For all those things we planned
We still have each other, the kids are in bed
So come on now, take my hand

(Chorus and repeat)
